Classroom Policies

Supplies

pens, pencils, Kippah (optional for girls), textbook, spiral notebook, pocket folder and assignment book.

Behavior Expectations

1. Come to class on time.
2. Avoid disruption of class (no note passing, talking out of turn, improper language, or disrespect)
3. No food or drink are to be brought to class

Consequence of Non Compliance

1. Unexcused lateness is reported to the office.
2. Notices will be sent out for being unprepared
3. Improper behavior will result in detentions.
This type of behavior has a negative effect on your grade.

Homework, Test, Quiz Policy

1. Submit homework on time.
2. Homework which is one day late will be lowered one letter grade.
3. Homework which is more than a day late will not be accepted.
4. If you are excused for sports or another activity you must make up homework, quizzes, or tests beforehand.
5. If you are absent from school please make up homework, and quizzes upon your first day of return. Tests will be made up within two days of your return.
6. Lateness in making up tests and quizzes will result in a loss of grade points.

Grades

Tests/Quizzes/ Projects: 50% Homework: 25% * Participation 25%

*1) Come to class on time. Take your seat. Quickly get quiet and prepare to begin the lesson.

2) Make an effort to use the restroom or get a drink before or after class.

3) It is important to be on task in class. This means being open to the right page at the beginning of the lesson.

4) Positive participation means that not only do you speak; you must also listen to what others have to say. You may be asked at anytime to summarize what has been covered in class.

5) Kindly remember to always treat your teachers and your fellow classmates with Derech Eretz (respect)

I have read and agree to do my best to comply with Mrs. Linietsky's classroom policies.
