

1. What/who made Jephthah leave his home and flee out of the land?
2. Why did B"l ask Jephthah to return to Israel as their chief of war?
3. What was the king of the ammonites' response to Jephthahs' first message?
4. What did Jephthah promise g-d if he would deliver the ammonites into the hands of B"l?
5. Even though Jephthah promised a burnt offering to g-d, where did he allow his daughter to go, before her death? How long did she go to this place?
6. What is now a tradition in Israel because of this story?