Barrack's Varsity Baseball Team Captures Penn-Jersey Title Champions for Third Year in a Row

Bryn Mawr, PA (May 15, 2009): Barrack Hebrew Academy's boys' varsity baseball team successfully defended its Penn-Jersey championship title on Thursday, defeating Solebury 10-4, behind the masterful pitching by junior co-captain Daniel Becker. Becker tossed a complete game, surrendering only two hits while striking out eight and walking two.

"Barrack Hebrew Academy has now won the Penn-Jersey League Championship for the third year in a row," reports Coach Jerry Kleger, "and every member of the Cougars' lineup contributed to the win." Standouts included Co-Captain Daniel Saewitz, a Barrack junior, who had a double, two RBIs, two runs scored and five stolen bases. Sophomore Jake Levin had two hits, a RBI, and scored a run, while junior Auri Manstein contributed a double and a RBI.

"Congratulations are in order for the entire team, including Eilor Gola, Noah Cohen, David Kolonsky, Matt Borowsky, Daniel Raikin, Max Gottlieb, Erik Miller, Ivan Levingston, Daniel Becker, Jake Cohen, Etan Weinstein, Daniel Elkin, Josh Ackerman, and Zach Jutcovich," adds Assistant coach, Joe Davis.

Barrack Hebrew Academy provides a dynamic dual curriculum of college preparatory and Jewish studies to students in grades 6-12. The only pluralistic Jewish day school in the tri-state area, Barrack welcomes students from every spectrum of Jewish observance and life.
